Hair Death
Instantly removes and forever destroys objectionable hair, whether upon the face, arms or neck, without discoloration or injury to the most delicate skin. It was for fifty years the secret formula of Erasmus Wilson, acknowledged by physicians as the highest authority and the most eminent dermatologist and hair specialist that ever lived. During his private practice of a life-time among the nobility and aristocracy of Europe he prescribed this recipe. Price, $1 by mail.

Expenses of the Strip Opening.
George W. Evans, disbursing agent of the interior department, is in the city. He is now at work paying the expenses incurred in the opening of the Cherokee strip. The amount to be expended will reach $50,000.

If you are waiting for strip opening don't fail to buy your drugs, stationery, etc., at Lillie's drug store, the old reliable corner Harrison and Second street.

Stenography.
I have just opened a school for the exclusive study of shorthand, typewriting and business practice. Circulars furnished upon application. Call on or address Guthrie School of Shorthand or R. A. Gaffney, rooms 15 and 16, Kendall building, Guthrie, O. T.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Attend church this evening.
A delightful rain fell last evening.
W. A. Duncan is here from St. Joe, Mo.

J. H. Beatty is here from Oklahoma City.

Dan Peary of Oklahoma City is in town.

John B. Walker of Ponca will Sunday in the city.

A. B. Johnson of the United States army is in town.

Mrs. D. S. McKay left this morning for the world's fair.

Good places in the land office line at Perry command $125.

Special Agent Anderson came in from Perry yesterday.

Bart Barnes, Oklahoma's naval ad-det, is here on a short visit.

Dr. J. W. Rowland has returned to his home in Pine Bluff, Ark.

Frank Emery and C. T. Sowerby of Easton, Neb., are in the city.

Deputy Marshal Severns is said to be doing striking work at Perry.

Justice Morgan says business in his line is getting distressingly dull.

Miss Lou Hoffman, of Chandler, is the guest of Miss Blockie Jamison.

J. B. Walker, Ponca, and W. R.
Carswell, Beaumont, are in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Weckle of Dayton, Ohio, are visiting C. E. Eisen-schmidt.

H. J. Smith of El Reno has been granted a charter for the first national bank of New Elid.

J. W. Cottingham of the Santa Fe has returned from a long trip into Texas in the interest of his road.

Henry S. Webber of Cannelton, Ind., is here developing photographic views of the strip race from Orlando.

H. O. Kincaid, clerk of Woodward county, was in the city yesterday on business pertaining to his office.

A postoffice was established yesterday at North Elid. E. J. Simpson of El Reno was elected mayor of Elid.

General John W. Noble passed through the city yesterday afternoon enroute north. Was he looking for a claim?

Frank B. Crosthwaite is here from Washington, D. C., mingling with old friends. He was formerly examiner of accounts in the department of justice.

A young man from Missouri reported to the police that he had been robbed of his diamond pin, but he was unable to give particulars on account of a stupendous jag.

Judge S. H. Bradley, the newly appointed justice of the peace, at Elid, was in the city yesterday. The judge says Havens & Orner are doing a good law business at Elid and that the town has 8,000 population. The office of Justice of the Peace pays from $4, 000 to $5,000 the first year.

Sheriff Painter left yesterday for Jacksonville, Ill. He had in his custody Mrs. Mary Crosswell, an insane woman, whom he will place in the asylum. Nothing is known of the woman, further than her name. She drifted into Guthrie about four days ago and created a scene at the depot.

Governor Switzford returned yesterday from Elid, where he inspected the workings of the land office and viewed the work of filing. He says unprincipled wretches are still doing crooked work in the land office line, but measures have been taken to effectually stop dark practices and capture the perpetrators.

Police Judge Goodrich is the possessor of an arm as variegated in colors as the rainbow. While at Perry the other day the judge was bitten on the arm near the shoulder by a vicious horse. Happily, the teeth of the beast did not penetrate the flesh, but left a curious and picturesque landscape on the useful member of his honor's anatomy.

J. C. Hall of the Arkansas lumber company returned from Elid yesterday—dirty but happy. His company was the only one that had any lumber at Elid for the first two or three days and they made a bushel of money. They had twelve car loads on the ground Saturday afternoon and sold day and night as fast as they could hand it out.

A Lucky Star.
"Do you believe in a lucky star?"
"Of course I do. I know one policeman whose beat includes eight fruit stands and seven saloons."

OT Again.
The south bound Santa Fe train was off again last night, to the extent of two hours. The scores of Perryites who longed for a Saturday night bath in the capital city, were bowed down to the dust in consequence.

A Wichita Tenderfoot.
A poker game was played in this city Friday night with sky limit attachments. A Wichita sport went broke to the tune of $955.

Attend the races at Oklahoma City, October 25th, 27th and 28th.

Homeowners' guide and latest map, the best thing out; compasses, etc., at Lillie's drug store.

Have you tried those cigars at Lillie's drug store?

Ride to the Strip.
If you do, you want a first-class wheel. We sell all the standard makes of cycles. See us first.

SPENCER & ROBERTSON, Territorial Agents.

TO THE LADIES.
Mrs. N. P. Sagers has located in the Y. M. C. A. building, over Mrs. Sanders' millinery, where she is prepared to do all kinds of work in ladies' toilet, beautifying complexions, hair dressing, manicure, etc.
